WETHERELL FAMILY COAT-OF-ARMS

The Coat of Arms were under strict regulations by those in power. They were granted for special acts of bravery and services generally during wars. The following is a description of the Wetherell Family Coat-of-Arms and said to belong to the family of Daniel Bradford Wetherell.

"ARMORIAL COAT": Argent two lions passent guardent sable on a chief dancette of the second, three cups argent.

"EXPLANATION AND DESCRIPTION OF THE SYMBOLS AND COLORING OF THE ARMORIAL COAT." Argent white or silver, signifies peace and sincerity. Sable or black denotes constancy and sometimes but rarely, grief. The lion has always held a high place in heraldry as the emblem of deathless courage. Guillin, speaking of the lion, says "It is a lively image of a good soldier who must be valient of courage, strong of body, politic in council and a foe to fear." It is the emblem of St. Mark. In Venice it is borne with wings.

In the Encyclopedia of Heraldry:

WETHERALL: Two lions, pass. So on a chief indented to the last, three cove red cups, or crest. A demi lion ramp, as holding a covered cup, or:

WETHERELL: (as borne by Sir Charles Wetherell, knt. Attorney General in 1826- son of the very Reverend Nathan Wetherell, D. D. Dean of Hereford) Ar. two lions pass. guard sa. on a chief dansette of the second, three covered cups, or:

WEATHERALL OR WEATHERELL: Ar. two lions pass. guard sa. a chief gn. crest a cup or.

FOREWORD

The Wetherells of America are descendants of an honorable family in northern England, near the Scotland border. Records of the earliest form relate the name is spelled in many ways and as different versions of the origin of the name hundreds of different accounts have been recorded.

The village of Witherhold indicates one record of the derivation of the name. This place was used as a stronghold where cattle, sheep, weathers, etc. were driven to safety during the time of the Scotch Invasion in 1173.

Witherhold later called Wetheral still stands near Carlisle County Cumberland near the Scotland border. Wetheral Village was remarkable for its Priory, now in ruins. An area near Carlisle contains a Wetheral Church, Wetheral Parish, Wetheral Abbey and Wetheral Cross.

Another version of the origin of the name Wetherell signifies "Courageous Little Man."

Following are a few names which are similar and might be considered as the same family;

Wetherill	Wetherton	Witherell
Wetherbee	Wetherhold	Witherol
Wetherby	Wethershed	Witherly
Wetherel	Wetherly	Weatherall

and many many more.

It has been only during the last century that education of the masses has been very general. In former times the majority could not read or write. Undoubtedly many did not know where they were born or their age.

DESCENDANTS OF SETH DELANO WETHERELL

First known ancestor (?) Wetherell was born in Scotland (now England) and married Miss Delano. They had a son Seth Delano Wetherell, born in Scotland. He came to America and settled in Burlington, Vermont, married Ann Nothaway, who was of Scottish nobility descent, and moved to Alexander, Ohio in 1833. He was a farmer and lived to be 104 years old.
